

SEPTEMBER 8 - 19, 2009

“It was the end of our childhood, the death of our innocence.
From that moment on everything changed.”

“Truscott tale told from the heart”

The Globe & Mail

L-R: Susan Armstrong, Curtis teBrinke & Marion Day (2008 Production). Photo by Terry Manzo.

Innocence Lost: a play about Steven Truscott

BY BEVERLEY COOPER | DIRECTED BY MILES POTTER

Last season’s production stirred public interest, not only about what happened to Steven Truscott but to the community itself. And, as the playwright so sensitively points out, how the system failed the family of Lynne Harper. If you missed this powerful work in 2008, this is your only opportunity to see why Innocence Lost created such a sensation. Do not miss it!

Add your group travel information here - contact, performance date, time of departure, price, etc.

Poster
Sponsors:

2009
Season
Sponsors

Sparling's PROPANE

www.blythfestival.com ... toll free: 1-877-862-5984